

The 2019 Paloma Cabernet Sauvignon bursts out of the glass with waves of rich black and red fruits and a distinct note of cocoa in the background. This is a lush wine with a big mouthfeel, displaying beautiful purity of fruit. Consistent notes of dark cherry and plum combine with hints of black pepper and olive. The finish is long and silky. This wine will beautifully complement a hearty beef dish. Likely to evolve slowly, enjoy this beauty over many years.

The 2019 is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon, fermented and aged in French oak—33% new—for 18 months before being bottled in the spring and aged for an additional 30 months before release.

In 2003, Paloma Vineyard's 2001 Merlot was chosen by the Wine Spectator as the Wine of the Year out of over 15,000 wines from around the world. Since 2003, Paloma Merlot has been in the Wine Spectator TOP 100 two more times—in 2004 for the 2002 vintage (54th) and in 2009 for the 2006 vintage (65th)—as well as received the Wine Spectator Special Selection in 2012 for the 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon. Paloma Vineyard uses only estate fruit that is picked, fermented, and barreled in small lots.
